

A close-up shot of a person's head and shoulders. They are wearing a green and grey striped beanie with a small pom-pom on top. The person is looking towards a large white banner or wall that has been decorated with large, bold, green Korean characters. The characters are arranged in several rows, creating a pattern. Below this main text, there is a smaller line of dark green Korean text that reads "한국토종씨앗박물관" (Korean Native Seed Museum). The background shows some structural elements like pipes and a wooden shelf with books.
